

Your Library Card

To apply for a free library card, please bring a form of ID printed with your current mailing address (driver's license, first class mail, current bills, etc).

Children must be able to write their full name, and a guardian's signature is required for children under 18.

Guardians are financially responsible for all materials checked out on their children's card.

Tell us what you are looking for, we'll help you find it!

E-Books & E-Magazines

Download e-books and audiobooks through Overdrive on the library's website. We also have e-magazines through Zinio!

Check Us Out Online

Just go to the catalog at www.plumaslibrary.org and click on the link "Library's home page" to find news and events for each branch, as well as information about programs like Zip Books.

Loan Policies & Fines

Loan Periods

Materials and online resources for schoolwork, including Brainfuse.

The Plumas County Library provides free access to printed, audio-visual and electronic forms of information, and educates the community as to the uses and value of its resources. Serving as a gateway to knowledge beyond its collection, the Library is a reflection of the community, a gathering of its knowledge, culture, and information.

Literacy Program

Throughout Plumas County, adult learners have the opportunity to improve their skills in reading, writing, and computer literacy. If you would like to be a tutor, or know someone who could benefit from the Literacy Program, please contact 530-283-6413 (Quincy or Greenville), 530-258-2767 (Chester), or 530-832-0522 (Portola).

Friends of the Library

Membership forms for Friends of the Library are available at each branch. Local Friends groups support the library by providing funds for library purchases and programs. Donate your used books and time to the Friends of the Library, and help benefit the Library and its services.

Holds & Renewals

You can place a hold on an item that we have in the catalog from any of our branches. Once it becomes available, you will be notified by phone or email and we will hold it at the front desk for you. You can do this on the online catalog by going to www.plumaslibrary.org and entering the 14 digit number on the back of your library card as your login. The last four digits are your PIN.

You may renew by phone or online. Books and audiobooks may be renewed twice. If an item is on request for another patron, it may not be renewed. DVDs/Videos can be renewed once.
