

An illustration featuring a central light gray square. Inside this square, the text "LIBRARIES WITH HEART" is written in a white, bold, sans-serif font. Below the text is a blue and white blood pressure monitor with a dark blue cuff. Surrounding the central square are several stylized hands in shades of orange and yellow. Some hands are holding red hearts, while others are open. Small red and brown dots are scattered around the hands. The overall theme is community health and care.

LIBRARIES WITH HEART

Plumas and Sierra County Library
are proud to offer blood pressure monitors for at-home use. Please see the circulation desk to borrow monitors or for more information.

<https://www.plumascounty.us/546/Library>