D. Behavioral Health Department – Transfer of funds not received for prior fiscal years, $37,318.05 for FY 21/22, $71,614.15 for FY 23/24, for a total amount of $108,932.20; discussion and possible action.

a. Attachment(s): Memo from Behavioral Health

Chief Allred proposes that items C and D be discussed in unison, as there is some overlap between the two items. Miguel Herrera, Department Fiscal Officer of the Plumas County Probation Department, outlines the budget. Mimi Hall, District 4 Supervisor and Vice-Chair of the Board of Supervisors, suggests that a system of checks and balances be put into place in order to maintain continuity of services for CCP in the event of funding shortfalls, drawing upon experience from prior realignment years that experienced negative growth, and looking upon the current fiscal climate in the state.

Discussion is held about future spending, and about past spending, specifically in regard to Behavioral Health.

Discussion is held, and a decision is made and a motion put forth to transfer funds not received by Behavioral Health for services rendered in FY23.24, but not for years prior to that time.
